SAME PEOPLE. SAME FIRM. NEW TEAM NAME.

We are pleased to announce that our team name will change from SLC Investment Management Group to “Intellus Advisors of Raymond James.”

Why “Intellus Advisors”? Our responsibility is to gather intelligence about changing markets and investment opportunities and to have you tell us about your changing needs and goals. Our new name describes how we integrate our investment and financial insights with your financial needs and goals to provide thoughtful advice, meaningful planning, and prudent investment management.

This is only a name change. Nothing else is changing, except we now will have the ability to share with you timely educational and explanatory information through our new website and social media communications. Please note our new website address and Facebook business page (“Like” us on Facebook to receive updates and educational material):
